

ENGINEERS PUT UP PROPOSITION TO PRESIDENTS OF RAILROADS FINALLY

Outcome of Today's Conference Will Decide Whether or Not Fifty Railroads West of Chicago Are to Be Tied Up.

Roads Leading Through Coshocton Would Be Affected If Strike Order Is Issued — Federal Authorities Block Strike Today.

New York, Apr. 23.—Whether or not 25,000 steam and electrical locomotive engineers would strike, tying up 50 railroads east of the Mississippi river and north of the Ohio was put flatly and finally up to the railroad presidents today following the government's initiative in offering to endeavor to effect mediation, by Warren S. Stone, chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

The conference committee of railroad officials was called to meet today by its chairman, J. S. Stuart, to consider the proposition for mediation as proposed by Martin A. Knapp, presiding judge of the Federal Court of Commerce and by Labor Commissioner Charles P. Neill. The engineers had already accepted the government's offer, which was said to have been inspired by President Taft himself.

"We have gone as far as we can in the matter," said Grand Chief Stone, "and I think our conduct in immediately accepting the government's offer to endeavor to bring about mediation will satisfy desire to avoid a strike if possible. However, if the railroad officials refuse to meet us in this last opportunity to get together, we shall have no recourse but to call the men out."

Among railroad heads up to whom the situation was thus placed are: S. C. Long, vice president of the Pennsylvania lines east of Pittsburgh; G. L. Peck, general manager of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh; and B. A. Worthington, receiver for the Wheeling and Lake Erie.

The strike would have been in effect today but for the move made by the federal authorities. Government intervention came in the form of two identical letters; one sent to Mr. Stone and the other to Mr. Stewart. The strike already had been determined upon, the railroads having rejected the men's demands for an eighteen percent wage increase and minor technical concessions when the strike order was rescinded.

West Threatened

Kansas City, Mo., April 23.—Threatening to call a general strike of 300,000 shopmen and car repairers on western lines, unless the strike on the Illinois Central and the Harriman lines, which has been going on for nearly six months is mediated, officers of the newly formed federation of railway men's unions have sent a telegram to President Taft advising him of their intentions. Presidents of twelve unions signed the message.

Unless a reply is received from the president indicating a desire on the part of the government for mediation in the present strike plans for a general strike will be formed at once, it was said here today.

THE OHIO HISTORIES ARE HERE!

The first shipment of the History of Ohio reached The Daily Age this morning and they are now ready for distribution. Like all good things, they came slowly, and there has been much disappointment because they were not on hand the moment the coupons were redeemable. They open up handsomely; they are even nicer than the samples from which we bought. They are complete histories of the best state of the union. Handsomely bound and printed on excellent paper in big clear type. As a book, it is a triumph of the maker's art; but the best of it is the matter within. The history is complete and voluminous. It is filled from cover to cover with things every citizen of Ohio ought to know—and most of us don't.

For instance, what is the state flower? How many states were admitted to the Union before Ohio? In Ohio broadest east and west or north and south? What three towns have been the capital of the state? Where was the first Methodist church in Ohio? With the fine county map, it is a $4.50 book. The only way you can get this great educational feature is through The Daily Age—six free coupons and 98 cents. It ought to be on every center table in this county.

ONE CIRCUS ONLY TO COME

Fight With Pennsy Company Keeps Shows Off Road

Coshocton will have but one circus this summer, and that because the circus companies and the Pennsylvania Lines are on the outs according to H. S. Hopping, contracting agent of the Sun Bros. show, who was in Coshocton today arranging for that show at the ball park, Monday, May 20.

He says Sun Bros. will be the only circus in Coshocton this summer.

"The circuses and the Pennsylvania have had a fall out, and I understand the railroad has refused to carry any more circuses. I understand the cause is the trouble the Southern had last year with Buffalo Bill and Ringling shows," he said, "and railroads are keeping away from any more shows. We were lucky enough to get in early with our contract."

PROPOSAL OF FERREL PASSES

Columbus, April 23.—Backed by 80 delegates and opposed by only 13, the Ferrel proposal, giving the general assembly power to regulate hours of labor and fixing a minimum wage passed the constitutional convention. It is the first of the so-called labor program. The proposal adopted yesterday reads:

Law may be passed fixing and regulating the hours of labor, establishing a minimum wage, and providing for the comfort, health, safety and general welfare of all employees; and no other provision of the constitution shall impair or limit this power.

he proposal will permit the legislature to pass a law, fixing minimum wages of school teachers. For lack of a constitutional provision like the Ferrell proposal, an act passed a few years ago, fixing minimum wages at $40 a month for teachers, recently was held unconstitutional by the supreme court and reference to this decision was made in argument for the proposition yesterday. One of the strongest arguments against the minimum wage feature was made by Mr. Harris of Hamilton, who called it a species of "economic insanity" and declared that labor could not be benefited by a proposition which would have the effect of increasing prices of articles consumed.

JUDGE WEYGANDT GETS A BAD FALL

Rail Breaks Throwing Him to Ground Striking His Face

Judge W. E. Weygandt met with a painful accident Sunday afternoon. He had gone to the golf links for a walk and while getting over a fence the top rail broke and he fell in such a way as to strike his chin and right cheek on the rail, knocking off a lot of skin. Although his face presented a bruised appearance Judge Weygandt went to Millersburg on Monday morning to hold court.—Wooster Rep.

Fund Is Growing.

London, April 23.—Lord Mayor Crosby's fund for the Titanic survivors reached $255,000 at noon today and it was then believed that it would pass the $500,000 mark before night.

NOW THOUGHT MOTHER OF THESE CHILDREN HAS BEEN FOUND

—See Bottom of this Page

These two little French children, passengers on the Titanic with their father, a widower, were being brought to this country (to be cared for no doubt by relatives) and were thrown into the lifeboat that left the side of the sinking Titanic by their father, who stood at the rail gazing intently at the boat that was rapidly drawing away into the darkness. The youngsters, one four and the other two have been adopted by Miss Margaret Hays, a wealthy New Yorker, also a survivor, who first took notice to the children as they played and pranced about the deck of the Carpathia. Neither of the boys can speak a word of English, and they showed a marked affection for their new mamma when she spoke to them in their own French.

CLAIMS LAPSE OF MEMORY

Alleged Murderer Claims He Doesn't Know Why He Locked Up

Stockton, Calif., April 23.—Unless William Dorr, charged with the murder of George Marsh, the Lynn, Mass. soap manufacturer, breaks down and makes a full confession, he probably will plead total lapse of memory from the time he left California for the east, until after his incarceration in a cell of the Stockton jail.

Last night Dorr, while being questioned threw himself to the floor of his cell, striking his head on the cement covering. When officers lifted him up, he surveyed his surroundings with evident surprise, he asked why he had been arrested. Asked if he did not know that he had sold his business six weeks ago and just returned from Massachusetts, where he is accused of committing a murder, Dorr declared the officer was trying to play a joke on him.

BIG MACHINES INSTALLED FOR WORKING GOLD

Taylor, the jeweler, today installed a massive 85-pound hammer in his jewelry manufactory, used in making cuff buttons, necklaces, class and flat pins, etc. It swings a massive die. He is having made at the Keagy & Lear shops two other large machines for his growing and increasing factory business.

COULDN'T TRUST LAWYER NO HOW

"There's no law in Coshocton county. I wouldn't trust a lawyer with a plugged nickel. I'm going to take my papers up to Akron where they have the real kind of law," and with a flourish of her umbrella, Mrs. Shellhorn dramatically made this pronouncement in the clerk of court's office Tuesday morning. She was hunting for a certain lawyer, and went from office to office in the court house looking for him, with interested officials growing in number at each stop. The lawyer she sought was in the inner office of the clerk of courts and when she turned her back slid out and made tracks down the front stairs and out the door. The lady is eccentric and is said has an invalid kick on the way her divorce case is being handled, but she thinks she has. She had Clerk Haverick in a corner for an hour and talked incessantly over the idiosyncrasies of the legal profession. She also averred her dislike of newspapers, so all reporters in the building disguised themselves as either politicians or preachers, and thus escaped with a thin alibi. It was the most exciting morning in the temple of justice for the past ten days.

Evened Up

New York, April 23.—A sixth finger upon the hand of one year old Mary Kroup of Isleup was removed by surgeons and grafted on the hand of Wm. Howell, aged 12, who had lost a finger in an accident.

Mother of Two Waifs Found in France

New York, April 23.—The mystery of the identity of two pretty little waifs of the sea, who were saved from the Titanic when the liner plunged to the bottom of the ocean, may be solved by a photograph sent today to Mme Navratil, of Nice, France, who believes that she is the mother of the two children. The picture of the two little boys, who are temporarily in custody of Miss Margaret Hays, another Titanic survivor, was sent in answer to a cable from Nice.

According to cable advices received here, the correspondent of the Paris Journal at Nice, untraveled that end of the mystery. He learned that Madame Navratil, who is separated from her husband, had two children who disappeared with her husband a month ago. From a description the woman identified the two little Titanic waifs as her own children, Louis and Lolo. She said that the French was evident from their childish prattle.

RUMOR SAYS W.&L.E. WILL REORGANIZE

Unofficial Announcement in New York Says Separation of Wabash and Pittsburgh Terminal.

RELIEVE WABASH OF LITIGATION

Wabash Gets $2,000,000 and Terminal Co. Is To Pay Off $8,000,000 W. & L. E. Notes.

Reorganization of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railway operated under the receivership of B. A. Worthington of Cleveland, is now in sight, according to dispatches from New York Tuesday.

Unofficial announcement was made in New York yesterday of an agreement for the complete separation of the Wabash railway from the Wabash Pittsburgh Terminal. The Wabash is to be relieved of all litigation and obligations connected with the terminal and put in line to be reorganized.

Coinciding with this agreement, between the Wabash and Pittsburgh Terminal, by which the Wabash gets $2,000,000 the Terminal company arranged to pay off $8,000,000 of notes for which Wheeling & Lake Erie bonds are collateral.

"After this agreement is approved by the courts," says a New York dispatch, "the Pittsburgh Terminal Co., and the Wheeling & Lake Erie Co., also will be ready for reorganization."

THIS BOARD VERY TIRED

Tuscarawas-co. Does Not Yet Know Who Candidates Are

New Phila newspapers are roasting the county board of elections because no one in Tuscarawas-co. yet knows who was nominated by the petitions filed Saturday. The board was "too tired" to sit up Saturday night and adjourned till Tuesday when they will start to arrange the petitions. In the meanwhile no one knows who the candidates will be. As Tuscarawas is the largest county in the district the petitions for congress must be filed there. So far as known no Republican has aspired to contest the honor for congress with W. A. Ashbrook. However, that board over there deserves a leather medal for being hustlers.

COLD CHARLEY AFRAID OF THE CARS

Indianapolis, Ind., April 23.—Chas. Warren Fairbanks, former vice president will not be a delegate at large to the Chicago Republican convention although elected by the state convention here. Fairbanks holds that he cannot, having served as vice president with Roosevelt, go as a Taft supporter, with the other Hoosiers and vote against his former running mate. He is said to have told Taft supporters before the convention that he could not serve if elected. Since then he has stated positively that he would not attend the convention as a delegate.

FUNERAL FLEET NOW HOVERS OVER THE SEA

Halifax, N. S., April 23.—A funeral fleet, of which the cable ship Mackay-Bennett is the flagship, is assembling off the New Foundland coast to keep up the search for the bodies of victims of the Titanic disaster. The Western Union cable ship Minto today is steaming to the Grand Banks to join the Mackay-Bennett.

The Minto carried 150 coffins and the only passenger was Rev. H. M. Cunningham, rector of St. George's church, who will pronounce the burial ritual over the remains of those who are too disfigured for identification. The bodies which are beyond recognition will be encased in canvas shrouds, weighed with iron bars and recondigned to the sea. Several such were given sea burial last night.

The ships which are searching for dead bodies are continuing their hunt farther and farther eastward as the remains are being borne east to the gulf stream.

Fragmentary and incomplete wireless reports which are relayed here from time to time strengthen the belief that the bodies of Colonel John Jacob Astor, Major Archibald Butt and George D. Widener and J. B. Thayer have been recovered and are on board the Mackay-Bennett. Confusion in wireless messages has resulted in many names not on the Titanic being flashed from the Mackay-Bennett.

TWO WOMEN ARE SENTENCED TO THE WORKHOUSE

Roxey Potter and Sarah Brown Used Profane Language

GET $15 AND TEN DAYS EACH

Rocksey Potter and Sarah Brown, the latter a mother of a small babe in arms, were fined $15 each and each was sentenced to serve 10 days in the Canton work house by Mayor Casingham Tuesday because they used profane and obscene language at their home on Swan Island Monday night, following a neighborhood quarrel.

Thomas Potter, Jr., swore out the affidavits for the arrest of the women.

The trouble started several days ago. Mrs. Brown and Thomas Potter's wife engaged in a tongue lashing. It ended in Mrs. Brown's darling, Mrs. Potter into the street. A fight ensued. Potter, seeing that his wife was being bested, took the affair in his own hands and landed in front of Squire Mike Wimmer on a charge of assaulting Mrs. Brown. He was fined for the offense.

Monday night the neighborhood was again disturbed by the quarrel in which vile and vulgar language flew back and forth thick and fast. Special Patrolman Laird was detained to quiet the disturbance after the report was made to the mayor's office. Later Potter filed affidavits against the two women.

Tuesday afternoon Mayor Casingham gave the women a sound lecturing and a stiff sentence.

The probate court has been asked to take care of the small child left behind by Mrs. Brown's being sent to the workhouse.

The fact that Mrs. Brown and the Potter girl went to the Thomas Potter home where Effie Potter, a delinquent child by a declaration of the probate court, makes her home makes the case more severe. The language used at the Potter home Monday night could be used as a charge for contributing to the delinquency of the Potter girl. Both had been warned to stay away from the young Potter girl by Probation Officer Brunsell but in spite of this warning Monday night they both went to the home and started trouble.

TED OR TAFT?

Wheeling, W. Va., April 23.—A battle to decide whether West Virginia will go solid for Col. Roosevelt or whether the delegation to the national convention shall be split is being waged in the Ohio county primaries today.

This county is the most important in the state and leaders conceded that if Roosevelt won here he would have the state solidly behind him as he has already carried twenty-eight of the states 55 counties. Ohio county is always considered a pivotal election community in the state.

Now He Will Crow

New York, April 23.—The skin of egg was used by surgeons of the Babyton, L. I. hospital to fill up the hole in the broken leg of Patrick Padian, a patient.

CLAIMS BOAT COULD HAVE HELD MORE

Third Officer of Titanic, a Survivor, Furnishes Sensation for Investigation Committee.

SHRIEKS OF THE VICTIMS HEARD

Say Unknown Vessel Was in Sight of Sinking Ship But Refused to Offer Any Aid

Washington, April 23.—Admitting that the lifeboat he commanded could have held 25 or 30 more persons than the 45 who had been ordered into it on board the doomed ship, third officer H. J. Pittman of the Titanic, told the senate committee which is investigating the disaster at the hearing here today that he held the boat off while the shrieks of struggling victims rang in his ears and was dissuaded by his passengers from going to their aid "for fear that they would swamp" the boat.

Women wept as this testimony was given and the witness himself bowed his head and lowered his voice as he answered the questions put to him by Senator Smith, chairman of the committee.

The movements of J. Bruce Ismay on the boat deck of the Titanic the night she took her final plunge were described by Pittman.

Ismay, in Pittman's narrative, appears as a man whose identity was not known, but who, appearing on the boat deck in a dressing gown, urged that time was precious and that life boats should be lowered.

Pittman said he turned in his berth at ten minutes' thirty-two minutes after the collision. He said there was no special impact and he thought the ship "had dropped" its "mud hooks."

"Then I got up and went out on deck. I thought it was a dream, went back to my cabin and lighted my pipe."

He said Boxhall told him they had struck icebergs. He met Moody, the sixth officer, who said he had seen no berg, but there was ice on the forward well deck.

"I went back to the boat deck and while I was standing at No. 6 boat, my post, in the act of clearing away this boat, a man in a dressing gown and slippers stepped up."

"There is no time to be lost," he said to me. But I did not think he knew anything about it."

Did you know who this man was?

Not then. I do now.

Who was he?

Mr. Ismay. I was struck with the easy way in which the boats left the davits and the man in the dressing gown said I had better fill it with women and children. I told him I was waiting orders from the captain. The man in the dressing gown then left. It then struck me that it might be Ismay and I told the captain and he said 'Go ahead with the boats.'

"I shouted to the women to come along and, with forty in the boat shoved it off."

Witness said Murdoch ordered him into the boat and said: "You go away in this boat, old man."

"I did not like the idea," continued the witness. "I thought we were better off on the ship."

Were the passengers reluctant to get into the boat?

No, I filled my boat easily. I had about 40 passengers, including half a dozen men. There were no women around. Murdoch said 'You get into the boat, but hang around.' He shook hands with me and said 'Good bye, old man, god luck' and I never saw him again."

Pittman said his boat was the second lowered on the starboard side from the boat deck.

Who were the men in your boat?

Five members of the crew and five or six were male passengers. The balance were women.

Did you know them?

I don't know their names.

Witness said that all of his passengers survived. He knew his boat was equipped with bread and water. It did not have lights, but some of the boats had lights. He thought only two or three compartments of the Titanic would fill with water and that she would float.

Did any passengers attempt to get in your boat after she struck the water?

No, and there was no attempt to get out. They all behaved admirably. Any of the women row, or use the tiller?

No, but some of them wanted to row to keep warm.

Was it cold?

Thirty-five or forty degrees.

Did you return to the side of the boat?

OVER HALF OF ALL SICKNESS CAUSED BY CLOGGED UP WEAKENED KIDNEYS

Hundreds Are Suffering With Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It. Backache, Bladder Disorder and Rheumatism Are The Result.

It is a well recognized fact among physicians today, that the greater part of all sickness can be avoided by keeping the kidneys working properly.

This is even more important than for the bowels to move regularly, because the kidneys and bladder are the filters and sewers of the body. If you suffer with pains in the back, or sides, bladder, or urinary disorders, lumbago, rheumatism, dizziness, puffiness under the eyes or in the feet and ankles, nervousness, tired and worn-out feeling, or any of the many other symptoms of kidney trouble, don't neglect yourself another day and run the risk of serious complications. Secure an original package of Croxone, which costs but a trifle, take three doses a day, for a few days, and you will be surprised how entirely different you will feel. Croxone cures the very worst cases because it removes the cause of such troubles. It soaks right in and cleans out the kidneys and makes them filter out all the poisonous waste matter and uric acid that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes and heals the bladder and quickly effects a permanent, positive, lasting cure.

It is the most wonderful remedy ever made for the purpose. You will find it entirely different from anything you have ever used. There is nothing else on earth to compare with it. It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered, the very principle of Croxone is such that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results.

You can secure an original package of Croxone from any drug-class drug store, such as Smith's drug and book store who will personally return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.

Samuel Warner, 46 years old, died at his home in Alliance Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock after a brief illness with a disease known as "miller's asthma." He was a brother of Mrs. John Mullet of Coshocton.

Mr. Warner was a miller in Alliance. He gained his first knowledge of the milling industry in New Philadelphia. After learning the business Mr. Warner was a part owner of a mill at Gnadenbutten. Fourteen years ago he went to Alliance.

Mr. Warner leaves his wife and three children. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Charles Henman, New Philadelphia; Mrs. John Mullet, Coshocton; Mrs. James Barker, Canton; Mrs. Daniel Niederheiser, Canton; Mrs. Elmer Wilson, Canton, and John Warner of Newcomerstown.

Mr. Warner was a member of the New Philadelphia lodge L. O. O. F. and the K. of P. lodge of Alliance. He belonged to the Methodist church.

The funeral was held at Alliance Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

DR. CONE WILL BE CANDIDATE

Friends of Dr. Edmund C. Cone have urged him to become a candidate for county coroner, and it is understood that the doctor has consented to his name being voted on. To get on the ticket, it will now be necessary to write the name in the ballot where the vacancy occurs. The doctor is one of the county's leading physicians and would make an excellent official.

James Bawson of Bacon Run, a son-in-law of Mrs. Martha Kirk of Lee avenue is very ill with angina. Miss Alma Graper, society reporter on The Daily Age, submitted to an operation for appendicitis at the hospital Tuesday morning. Dr. Cairn in charge. It was eminently successful and the patient is convalescing nicely.

Before her marriage to the wealthy New York banker, Miss Carnwright promised to return to Paris after her honeymoon to help Bourguin complete what was to be his masterpiece, for which she was posing on request. Mrs. Mendham has never kept her promise and Bourguin spends a great part of his time in his studio walking around his uncompleted work and loudly bewailing the inconsistency of woman.

TRAIN SCOUTS AGAINST FIRE

"Care" Is Keyword Being Emphasized by Scoutmasters

The boy scouts are being trained to prevent fire. The key word that is being emphasized by their scoutmasters is "care." Already the boys have been receiving instructions from fire chiefs throughout the country as to what to do in the event of fire and many boys have received for this work merit badges from the Boy Scouts of America. The leaders of that organization, however, realize that the boy scouts by fire prevention can save the country millions of dollars every year. They have directed James E. West, Chief Scout Executive, to begin an educational campaign throughout the country to reduce the fire loss.

The boy scout leaders took up the question of prevention after H. King Hanna, of New York, called to their attention the fact that the average annual loss by fire in this country is the $250,000,000. It equals the amount practically of the tariff duty. Representatives of insurance companies estimate that three-fourths of this loss is due to carelessness.

The men interested in the scout movement desire to make the boy scouts see what a great factor they can be in saving the property of the country. Accordingly scoutmasters are urged to impress on the boys the necessity of care. The leaders point out that 20,000 homes are set on fire every year through careless use of matches; that the majority of forest fires are started by the carelessness of hunters, fishermen and campers; that the careless use of kerosene and naphtha causes many fires. Accordingly the scoutmasters are being asked to train the boys to the following things:

Watch the ashes in the furnace and see to it that they are put only in metal receptacles.

Examine chimneys, flues and stove pipes at least once a week. Defective flues cause about 30 per cent. of the fires.

Warn persons using naphtha, benzene or gasoline to keep away from gas jets and matches. One kind of gasoline will impregnate 200 feet of air and make it explosive.

Watch gas jets. Be on the alert to detect the source of the smell of gas.

Boy scouts should not allow their smaller brothers and sisters to carry matches. They should never carry a lighted match into a closet filled with garments. Boy scouts are urged to see to it that the servant girl does not light the kitchen fire with kerosene.

Is Operated Upon.
Mrs. T. L. Rogers, of Walnut, underwent an unusually severe operation Tuesday morning at the city hospital. The operation was performed by Drs. Shaw, Pomeroy and H. R. McMurtry. The patient is reported as doing nicely since the operation.

DISPUTE ENDS IN AN ASSAULT

Aged Physician Attacks Woman With Hoe Near Newark

Newark, April 23—Mrs. Jane Parks, aged 80, was attacked by Dr. Joseph Walton, a retired physician following an altercation between the two regarding a piece of ground in the rear of the Parks home, the ownership of which is in dispute. Dr. Walton used a hoe, which he wrested from the aged woman while she was working in the garden.

Dr. Walton says that the woman first struck him with the weapon before he took the hoe from her and struck her.

Mrs. Parks' condition is considered extremely grave. It is feared that

The Peevish Child Needs a Laxative

It is natural for a child to laugh and play and when it sulkis drowsily or physical you may depend on it something is the matter. If you see no evidence of a serious ailment you will not be wrong if you quietly give it a dose of mild laxative that evening on putting it to bed.

The remedy most generally recommended for this purpose is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which mothers throughout the country have been giving their children for a quarter of a century. Today thousands of families are using it where hundreds used it then, and there must be good reason for this word of mouth recommendation.

It is admittedly the perfect laxative for children, women, old people and all others who need a gentle bowel stimulant and not a violent salt cathartic pill or doctored water. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will act gently and when taken before retiring will bring complete satisfaction in the morning.

After a short use of this remedy all forms of outside aid can be dispensed with and nature will again act alone.

All classes of good American people keep it in the home for its effect on the stomach, liver and bowels, and among the thousands who have written the doctor that they will never be without it are Mrs. C. W. Egan, Madison, Ohio, and Mrs. L. R. Clark, 3493 Clark Ave., Cleveland, Ohio. A dose of it has saved many a person from a serious illness.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 415 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

THE MEN AND WOMEN

Who Enjoy the Choicest Products of the World's Commerce.

Knowledge of What is Best More Important Than Wealth Without It.

It must be apparent to every one that qualities of the highest order are necessary to enable the best of the products of modern commerce to attain to universal acceptance. However loudly heralded, they may not hope for world-wide pre-eminence unless they meet with the general approval, not of individuals only, but of the many who have the happy faculty of selecting and enjoying the choicest products. Their commendation, consequently, becomes important to others, since to meet the requirements of the well informed of all countries the methods of manufacture must be of the most perfect order and the combination the most excellent of its kind. After thirty years of general usage, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is everywhere accepted as the best of family laxatives. Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the laxative and carminative principles of plants known to act most beneficially on the system, but also to the method of manufacture of the California Fig Syrup Co., which ensures that uniformity and purity essential in a remedy intended for family use. It cleanses and sweetens the system effectually, when a laxative is needed, without any unpleasant after effects. To get the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, buy of your druggist the genuine only, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package; one size only, price, 50 cents per bottle.

THE NOSTRIOLA TREATMENT FINE FOR TONSILITIS OR SORE THROAT

This Simple Harmless Remedy Acts Promptly and is Easily Applied. All Should Investigate.

Many people catch cold so easily that exposure to damp night air, cold winds, or being caught in a storm or drizzling rain, means for them either tonsillitis, sore throat or a bad cold in some form.

This is because the mucous membranes are in a weakened condition and frequent colds cause them to become swollen and inflamed, causing Catarrh and other distressing diseases of the air passages.

If you want a simple, harmless remedy that will protect and strengthen the linings of the air passages, so they will be able to resist and throw off colds, try the Nostriola treatment. Nostriola is a pleasant, harmless, antiseptic, cleaning healing balm, quickly reaches and opens the sore inflamed membranes and a pleasant surprise awaits all who use it.

In case of Sore Throat, and Tonsillitis, apply Nostriola freely to the affected parts and cover with a woolen cloth. Also swallow a small piece size of a small pea every few hours until relieved.

If you are troubled with Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, Head Noises, Asthma, Hay Fever, or other stoppages of the air passages, certainly you should give Nostriola a trial.

Hundreds of people in this vicinity are using the Nostriola treatment. Ask your druggist about it, and get a box today. You'll wish you had tried Nostriola sooner.

Council to Pave Two City Streets

Brick To Be Used on Eighth and Lower Part of Walnut Streets — Third Street Residents Want Paving?

North Eighth street will be paved after many months of quibbling among the residents along that street. Brick will be used. Petitions asking for the paving of the street from Chestnut to the end of Eighth were presented to the city council Monday night and the city solicitor was authorized to draw up an ordinance ordering the street's paving.

Almost a year ago petitions were presented to council for the paving of the street but the residents could not agree as to the material to be used. Some wanted asphalt others wanted brick. Cross petitions and remonstrances to the original petition was filed and as a result the matter had to be dropped by the council.

Walnut Also
Another piece of paving will be done by the city soon. A resolution declaring it necessary to pave Walnut street from the end of the present paving at the west line of Second to the east line of Water was passed by council Monday night. Brick will be used there too.

The street committee Monday reported that the big ditch along Adams street in the rear of the H. D. Beach Co. plant was causing some trouble and asked for relief. It was decided to ask the county commissioners to help the city in giving the residents of that section of the city some relief since the water that pours into the ditch comes from outside the corporation limits.

The attention of the service director will be called to the stretching of wires along sidewalks and curbs to prevent people from walking across lawns. It was pointed out in council Monday that the wires endangered the safety of pedestrians. It was suggested that if any protection for lawns is to be erected let them be high enough that a pedestrian cannot trip over them and fall.

It was said that a movement is on foot among the property owners of Third street between Main and Walnut for the paving of that street. No action was taken Monday by the city.

Get Ready for Summer
The water question was revived by Councilman Heffelfinger Monday evening when he asked why there was so much delay in the sinking of the new wells in the "forks." He was told that not one member of council could answer the question, for no one knows the answer. Mr. Heffelfinger said that in the course of a few weeks the city would have its new pump installed but would have an insufficient supply of water for it to handle.

It was pointed out by Councilman Compton that the city is entitled to a fee of at least $1 per diem for stands operating on the city streets. The Tyler point wagon located on Main street between Fifth and Fourth was pointed out as an exception of this rule. An ordinance passed a few years ago says that it is unlawful for street vendors to erect stands unless they pay fees from $1 to $25 per diem. No official action was taken on the matter.

Council was in session less than one hour.

ANOTHER VESSEL HIT BERG

St. Johns, N. F., April 23.—A report received here today states that the Allan liner Corsican, bound from St. John, N. B., to Liverpool, has struck an iceberg off the Grand banks. The Allan line officers here have had no confirmation of the report.

New York, April 23.—At the Marconi offices here it was said that nothing was known of the reported collision of the Corsican with an iceberg.

The Corsican is a twin screw schooner rigged ship with a steel hull and carries wireless. She was built for the Allan line at Glasgow in 1907 and is comparatively a new boat. Her displacement is 7,272 tons; her length 500 feet and her width 61 feet in the beam. The Corsican's hailing port is Glasgow.

LOUNGERS CAN BE IN SHADE

People who like to sit in the benches along Main street side of the court square can do so the coming summer and still be in the shade. Tuesday a force of men are at work making excavations for cement foundations for the benches which will be placed back on the lawn away from the sidewalk and in the shade of the big trees.

TURKISH HEAD OF ARMY DIES OF POISONING

Rome, April 23.—General Enver Bey, commander in chief of the Turkish army in Tripoli, is dead from gangrene poisoning at the Turkish headquarters in Tripoli, according to a dispatch received from the Italian commander in chief in Tripoli today. Enver Bey was recently wounded in a fight and gangrene set in. He was the most brilliant of the young Turk soldiers and was formerly Turkish military attaché at the German court.

PROVIDE FOR BACHELOR LAST

Dayton, April 23.—Bachelors are of the least consequence and should be the last persons provided for in the sea tragedies, according to views of Judge C. W. Dustin of the circuit court in discussing the rule of the sea as to who should first be saved in case of a wreck. The rule, he says, should be modified.

"The question to be considered," he said, "is what will produce the minimum of sorrow and the least loss to mankind."

She Had Consumption Was Dying. Now Well

Reckman's Alternative is being used with great success in the treatment of Tuberculosis. Persons who have taken it improved, gained weight, exhausted night sweats stopped, fever diminished, and many recovered. If you are interested to know more about it, we will put you in touch with the source who are now in Coshocton. Investigate and judge for yourself. Read of Mrs. Gove's recovery. Griffith, Ind.

"I remember thinking that perhaps a short history of the remarkable cure of my mother-in-law (Mrs. Anna Gove) might interest other sufferers. I hereby give the following testimonial: About September 10, 1908, she was taken sick with Catarrh of the stomach and became very worse, requiring a trained nurse. Night sweats were so bad that it was necessary to change her clothing several times every night; her countenance grew pale and she looked very ill. I then got some Reckman's Alternative, and she had Consumption and was beyond all medical aid. Which I used for a few days. She was very ill, and I thought I would try Reckman's Alternative, and see if it would not give her some relief. I then requested the attending physician to give her some Reckman's Alternative, and he replied that 'No physician could help her any and I could suit myself about it.' I then bought a bottle of Reckman's Alternative, and she took it for a few days. She was very ill, and I thought I would try Reckman's Alternative, and see if it would not give her some relief. I then requested the attending physician to give her some Reckman's Alternative, and he replied that 'No physician could help her any and I could suit myself about it.' I then bought a bottle of Reckman's Alternative, and she took it for a few days. She was very ill, and I thought I would try Reckman's Alternative, and see if it would not give her some relief. MRS. STRAUSS

On the front page of The Daily Age there appeared Monday a picture of Isador Strauss and his wife, who will go down into history as an ideal married couple. There has been nothing remarkable in their career as husband and wife, except they have been identically such. They were passengers on the ill-fated Titanic. The women and children were being rushed to the boats, and the men were making way that the weaker ones might find a place of safety. When Mrs. Strauss saw that she was to be separated from her husband, she refused to enter the life boat but clung to his arm. "If he dies I die," said this modern-Ruth. And she clung to him. The last those in the boat saw of them was as the giant liner plunged into the waves, they were silhouetted against the sky, in each other's arms. Their children were grown and able men and women. No little ones needed their fostering care. They were all in all to each other. Life without the other was less preferable than death. It is unfortunately rare that people who have spent a life time together as husband and wife have such an abiding affection in each other. Mrs. Strauss did just what she really ought to have done. Life without the man she had loved all her life would to her have been worse than death. They met their maker with clear consciences and clean souls.

THAT PARK AGAIN

If there is one demand that will bear repetition, it is Coshocton's demand for a park. Each year as the average citizen drags his feet along the hot summer pavements, the demand surges up in his breast and he represents the fact that this town has taken no steps for the benefit of itself. Sometimes one wonders why some very good central Ohio towns do not grow faster. Some possess the business instinct to marked degree; Coshocton for instance. There are not better business institutions anywhere than this town has. Coshocton is essentially commercial. And yet in our commerce we must not overlook the comforts that best moral conditions demand. Is citizenship elevated by walking the streets trying to find a breath of fresh air on a hot summer evening? There is nothing particularly edifying or inspiring in a town paved street. Sunday afternoons city streets, after Saturday's hustle, look worse than at any other time. And yet the rank and file of the people find those streets the only place they have to seek recreation. What is needed is a park. It makes better citizens. The average man will dwell where his wife and children want to live. The girls of the family generally have the say about such things and father harkens to them. We are firm in the belief that a public park would be a commercial as well as moral asset to this community. Let the council take cognizance of the demand and either arrange with the fair board for the use of the fair grounds grove or make some other adequate arrangement. This is a public need that is worth spending money for.

AGAINST SUFFRAGE

So pronounced was the effect of the address of Miss Minnie Bronson, at the Ohio State University that the Columbus office is already negotiating for so much of her time so they can secure, with the idea of using her for a campaign throughout the state. Miss Bronson is recognized as one of the best speakers of the National Association, and Ohio is recognized as the most vital spot where a campaign for suffrage is being waged. It is believed that this fact will have weight with the national officers and that Miss Bronson will be secured for a series of addresses as early in the summer as can be arranged.

Miss Bronson was active in the campaign in California, and to her efforts more than any other is attributed the defeat of suffrage by the legislature of New Jersey. Miss Bronson for years has been active in educational work, having represented this government at Paris and at the St. Louis exposition. She is a woman of property which she earned for herself, is a taxpayer, a social worker, having helped to settle the shirt waist strike in New York, and in many other ways has been active in public affairs.

At the University, she was introduced by Dr. Thompson, and had in her audience, practically all of the members of the faculty, who are avowed for woman's suffrage, yet at the conclusion of her address, Dr. Thompson, in the presence of others, said that she had given the most convincing arguments against suffrage that he had ever heard.

If the hopes of the Ohio Association can be realized, Miss Bronson will give a series of addresses throughout the state, speaking at points where the greatest interest has been manifested on this part of the amendment to the constitution.

DOCTORS ADVISE OPERATIONS

cannot praise your Vegetable Compound too highly. Every woman should take it at that time. I recommend it to both old and young for female troubles."—Mrs. EMILY SUMMERSGILL, Swarthmore, Pa.

Baltimore, Md.—"My troubles began with the loss of a child, and I had hemorrhages for four months. The doctor said an operation was necessary, but I dreaded it and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The medicine has made me a well woman and I feel strong and do my own work."—Mrs. J. R. PICKING, 1250 Sargeant St., Baltimore, Md.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

THE BUOYANCY OF FAITH

"Stick to the faith, for it opens the door, the silent hinges of which were forged upon the cross." On this text was a funeral sermon preached the other day over the bier of a man who had all his long life of 75 years been in the vortex of business, war and letters. The text was from no scriptural writings, but from a letter which the man himself had written some years previously to a friend who was overcome by grief at the death of his wife. And the sentence, pregnant with strength and hope as it is, was the more remarkable, for the man had never paraded his religion. He lived holding fast to the faith, without ostentation. And what a sermon is there in the words. Days come when it is hard to stick to the faith, nebulous as it at times seems. Crosses must be borne that test one's faith as well as strength.

And yet, it is that faith, and nothing else, that opens the great door, "the silent hinges of which were forged upon the cross."

By the will of the late Chalmers J. Laughlin filed in probate court late Monday all the property in Jefferson township valued at about $17,000 is bequeathed to the widow.

LOOKED LIKE WAX

A Symptom of Lack of Blood That Is Evident to Every One.

Pale, sallow complexion, ears that seem almost transparent, lips almost white—these are outward signs of anemia, or lack of blood.

The patient probably has a slight cough, complains of being easily tired and is troubled with palpitation of the heart.

There is one remedy for this condition—more blood. Blood is made from the food we eat but in this condition it is not made as fast as needed. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills double the blood making value of the food and are therefore a powerful agency in building up the blood.

Mrs. R. L. Harrod, of 413 South Ohio avenue, Muncie, Ind., to whom Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been recommended to health when all other medicines failed. "A few years ago," she says, "when I was living at Bellefontaine, Ohio, I was suffering with anemia. I was pale and had a wax-like color and was so short of breath that I couldn't go up stairs without stopping to rest or couldn't stand the least little exertion. I was run down and very thin, didn't feel like eating and didn't want to talk to or see anyone. My heart would palpitate so that I would feel weak. I couldn't sleep well, coughed constantly and I had pains under my shoulders. I was so miserable that I wanted to die."

"The doctors told me that my blood was turning into water, and that I was going into a decline and asked me if there had been any consumption in my family. They didn't help me at all and I had read so much about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I decided to try a box of them. They helped me so much that I gave up all other medicine and pinned my faith to them alone. I took several boxes and in a few weeks was completely restored to health. I became strong and healthy and was able to work again. I know Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have also cured rheumatism, after-effects of a grip and even such nervous diseases as neuritis, nervous headaches, dizziness, St. Vitus' dance and even partial paralysis and locomotor ataxia.

A booklet of valuable information, entitled "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free to any person interested.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammer Celebrate Anniversary

The fifty-first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hammer, of Spring Mountain, was celebrated Sunday at the home in that place in the presence of a large number of members of the family. The occasion was a very delightful one, and the entire day was spent in a very pleasant manner.

Those present were Mrs. Rose Krownapple and son Carl, Noah Hammer and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Richards and children, all of Chicago; Mrs. Martter and daughter of Cleveland; Jacob Lower, John Lower and Henry Lower with their families, of Zanesville; Mrs. Farrell and children of Columbus; Conrad Hammer of Coshocton and Frank Hammer and family of Spring Mountain.

In Charge of Society Column

Beginning next Monday morning Miss Kathryn Temple will be in charge of Daily Age society news. The present efficient society reporter, Miss Alma Graepel, has been forced to relinquish her work because of ill health, and is at present in the hospital. She expects as soon as convalescent to leave for her new home at Escanaba, N. Y., to which place her father and mother have recently moved. The Age regrets losing the services of one so faithful and competent. Her successor, Miss Temple, daughter of R. M. Temple, needs no introduction to Coshocton. At present she is with a large millinery firm in Athens. She will arrive home Sunday. The Daily Age bespeaks for her the kindly co-operation of all friends of the paper.

Will Be Here for Minstrels

Miss Louise and Mabel Jones, Miss Elizabeth Sohn and Vern Priest, of Newark, will be guests of Miss Hattie Williams Wednesday evening and will attend the Elks minstrels.

Will Form Theatre Party

The following young ladies will compose a theatre party at the Elks minstrels Wednesday night: Misses Cornelia Lamberson, Florence Powell, Helen Lamberson, Nellie Hay Helen Temple and Ethel Kuntz.

Woman's Music Club Meets

A meeting of the Woman's Music club was held Monday evening in the library. Miss Lulu McGinnis was the leader and the study for the evening was "The Modern Opera." Miss McGinnis was assisted by several members of the club in giving the subject.

On Thursday evening of this week the club will present the Beethoven trio in the third artist's recital of the season. The concert will begin at 8:15 and will be given at the Church of Christ.

Chautauqua Circle Meets

During the business session of the club it was decided to change the remainder of the meetings to one week later than is now arranged in order that the meetings will not conflict with the meetings of the Woman's Music club, of which some of the Chautauqua members are members.

Silver Wedding Anniversary

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac McNary of Orange street was celebrated Saturday. Twenty guests were present. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Uhr, of Chillicothe; Mrs. Ezra Felton of Columbus; Mrs. William West and Mrs. John Owens. The last three named were present at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. McNary twenty-five years ago. The evening was spent in an informal manner and at 10 o'clock a delicious lunch was served.

ship? No sir. Did you see the Titanic go down? Yes. Describe it. Her head was submerged first then she turned on end and went down perpendicularly.

Did she seem to break in two? No.

Did you hear any explosions? Yes. There were four reports like a big gun in the distance. I thought it was some of the bulk heads. I do not think it was the boilers; you may, but I don't. There was no steam on it, had been off two hours.

Did you hear any cries of distress? Oh, yes sir.

What were they? There were cries and moans from the water after the ship sank. There was no noise before the ship sank.

Did you return in their direction? No.

The room was as still as death when this reply was made. Pittman lowered his voice and spoke little above a whisper. What was to follow brought tears to many of the women spectators' eyes and shakes of the heads of the men.

"Your boat could have held 25 or 30 more persons, could it not?" asked the chairman.

"Yes, it would have held more persons," replied Pittman in his now subdued tones, "but I decidedly would better to remain where we were than to go back and risking the boat swamped by the many others who would try to get in it."

Were there many of those moans and cries for help?

Yes sir. Will you describe them?

"I would rather you would not speak about that."

Yes, I can understand that, but we must go on. We must know every thing.

Senator Smith's voice was also low, but very clear as he insisted upon the witness giving this, to him, most distasteful testimony.

"Tell us of these cries," he persisted.

How many were there and how long did they last?

They came from the ocean in the direction of where the ship went down. They were moans and pleading cries.

How long did they last?

About an hour.

As the vivid picture thus projected of the pitiful deaths of nearly 1500 helpless men and women in the mid-Atlantic grew like lightning in the minds of the spectators there was a concerted gasp of horror and all eyes were fixed unblinkingly upon the witness, who stared straight ahead of him.

"After the ship went down," Pittman continued, "I said: 'Now we will return and see if we can pick any one up' but the passengers protested—they said it was a mad idea and would simply mean that forty more would be drowned. I told my men to pull toward the Titanic and they obeyed, but the passengers dissuaded me."

Did any of the women appeal to you to return to the ship or go in the direction of the cries?

Not one. Who protested?

I don't know who they were. You really turned to go back to the ship and were dissuaded by the passengers?

Yes sir.

How many cries were there? Were they spasmodic or general?

It was a continual moan for an hour; moans of a thousand drowning men hung out over the waters where the Titanic took her final plunge as the passengers and crew sustained by life belts floated in the water and called for aid. There was a continual moan," he said, palling under his sea-tronized face at the mention of the dirge of the drowning.

signals, ignored the rockets that she sent up imploring aid and then sailed away on her course without an attempt to rescue or even an answer? This was one of the many mysteries surrounding the loss of the giant White Star liner that confronted the United States senate committee probing the Grand Banks disaster when it met here again today.

The startling information that another vessel stood by while the Titanic was flashing out calls for help and offered no assistance was given to the committee by J. B. Boxhall, fourth officer on the Titanic. He swore under oath that both he and Captain E. J. Smith of the White Star ship and other officers distinctly saw the red lights of the ship in the distance. The passing vessel, after standing by, steamed off into the darkness leaving the Titanic to her fate.

Fourth Officer Boxhall was told by the committee to present himself again before the committee today to supplement his story.

The story of Boxhall bears out accounts of a number of survivors who declared that from their lifeboats they could easily make out the mast lights of a ship and tried to row towards her but the vessel drew away and disappeared.

In anticipation of a continuation of the thrilling testimony of the founder of the great liner bigger crowds than jammed the senate office building yesterday were on hand long before the doors of the marble caucus room, where the sittings are being held, were thrown open.

A notable feature was the great number of women in the throng. In the crush were many distinguished society people—wives and daughters of congressmen, cabinet members and members of the diplomatic corps.

Just before the hearing was resumed, Chairman Smith said:

"We expect to hear the evidence of all of the White Star line employees and foreign witnesses first and then we will call the American witnesses. I propose holding two sessions every day this week, including Saturday and we propose completing our investigation as expeditiously as possible. Nothing is to be left undone, however, to make it thorough and every person and every scrap of evidence that can in any way throw any light upon this awful catastrophe will be produced before our committee."

When the committee session began today Senator Smith, chairman of the investigating committee, announced that it had been the intention to resume with the testimony of Officer Boxhall of the Titanic. That officer, however, was ill and unable to appear. Herbert J. Pittman, third officer of the Titanic, then was called as the first witness. Nothing was gained from his testimony except that he was on watch Sunday and saw no life.

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body is linked in the Chain of Life. A chain is so strong as the weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

"One better order if in advance," said Marjorie. "It takes that chef an hour to boil an egg three minutes."

"I will, if I can ever get my face washed," sighed Mrs. Wellington.

"And now Mrs. Anne Lathrop, after much hesitation, called timidly, 'Porter—porter—please!'

"Yes—miss—missus!" he amended.

"Will you call my—she gulped—my husband?"

"Yes, ma'am," the porter chuckled, and putting his grinning head in at the men's door, he bowed to Ira and said: "Excuse me, but you are sent for by the lady in number one."

Ashton slapped him on the back and roared: "Oh, you married man!"

"Well," said Ira, in self-defense, "I don't bear anybody sending for you."

Wedgewood grinned at Ashton, "I rather fancy he had you there, old top, eh, what?"

Ira appeared at number one, and bending over his treasure-trove, spoke in a voice that was pure saccharine: "Are you ready for breakfast, dear?"

"Yes, Ira."

"Come along to the dining car."

"It's coster here," she said. "Couldn't we have it served here?"

"But I'll get all cold, and I'm hungry," pouted the old bachelor, to whom breakfast was a sacred institution.

"All right, Ira," said Anne, glad to be meek: "come along," and she rose.

Ira hesitated. "Still, if you'd rather, we'll eat here." He sat down.

"Oh, not at all," said Anne; "we'll go where you want to go."

"But I want to do what you want to do."

"So do I—we'll go," said Anne.

"We'll stay."

"No, I insist on the dining-car."

"Oh, all right, have your own way," said Ira, as if he were being bullied, and liked it. Anne smiled at the contrariness of men, and Ira smiled at the contrariness of women, and when they reached the vestibule they kissed each other in mutual forgiveness.

As Wedgewood stropped an old-fashioned razor, he said to Ashton, who was putting up his safety equipment: "I say, old party, are those safety razors safe? Can't you really cut yourself?"

"Cut everything but hair," said Ashton, pointing to his wounded chin.

Mallory put out his hand: "Would you be kind enough to lend me your razor again this morning?"

"Sure thing," said Ashton. "You'll find your blade in the box there."

Mallory then negotiated the loan of one more fresh shirt from the Englishman, and a clean collar from Ashton. He rejoiced that the end of the day would bring him in touch with his own baggage. Four days of foraging on the country was enough for this soldier.

Also he felt, now that he and Marjorie had lived thus long, they could survive somehow till evening brought them to San Francisco, where there were hundreds of ministers. And then the conductor must ruin his early morning optimism, though he made his appearance in the washroom with genial good mornings for all.

Mallory acknowledged the greeting, and asked offhandedly: "By the way, how's she running?"

The conductor answered even more offhandedly: "About two hours late—and losing."

Mallory was transfixed with a new fear: "Good Lord, my transport sails at sunrise."

"Oh, we ought to make Frisco by midnight, anyway."

"Midnight, and sail at daylight!"

"Unless we lose a little more time."

Mallory realized that every new day managed to create its own anxieties. With the regularity of a milkman, each morning left a fresh crisis on his doorstep.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

The Complete Divorcer.

The other passengers were growing nervous with their own troubles. The next stop was Reno, and in spite of all the wit that is heaped upon the town, it is a solemn place to those who must go there in purgatorial penance for matrimonial error.

Some honest souls regard such divorce-emporiums as dens of evil, where the wicked make a mockery of the sacrament and assail the foundations of society, by undermining the home. Other equally honest souls, believing that marriage is a human institution whose mishaps and mistakes should be rectified as far as possible, regard the divorce courts as little refuges for ill-treated or ill-mated women and men whose lives may be saved from utter ruination by the intervention of high-minded judges.

But, whichever view is right, the ordeal by divorce is terrifying enough to the poor sinners or martyrs who must undergo it.

Little Jimmie Wellington turned pale, and stammered, as he tried to ask the conductor casually:

"What kind of a place is that Reno?"

The conductor, somewhat cynical from close association with the divorce-mill and its grist, grinned: "That depends on what you're leaving behind. Most folks seem to get enough of it in about six months."

Then he went his way, leaving Wellington red, agape and perplexed. The trouble with Wellington was that he had brought along what he was leaving behind. Or, as Ashton impudently observed: "You ought to enjoy your residence there, Wellington, with your wife on hand."

The only reprieve that Wellington could think of was a rather misapplied: "You go to —"

"So long as it isn't Reno," Ashton laughed, and walked away.

Wedgewood laid a sympathetic hand on Little Jimmie's shoulder, and said: "That Ashton is no end of a bounder, what?"

Wellington wrote his epitaph in these words:

"Well, the worst I can say of him is, he's the kind of man that doesn't lift the plug out when he's through with the basin."

He liked this so well that he wished he had thought of it in time to crack it over Ashton's head. He decided to hand it to him anyway. He forgot that the cardinal rule for repartee, is "Better never than late."

As he swung out of the men's room he was buttonhole'd by an individual new to the little Trans-American colony. One of the camp-followers and suitors who prosper round the edges of all great enterprises had waylaid him on the way to the battleground of marital freedom.

The stranger had got on at an earlier stop and worked his way through the train to the car named "Snowdrop." Wellington was his first victim here. His pushing manner, the almost vulture-like rapacity of his gleaming eyes, and the very vulgarian contour of his profile, his palmy gestures, his thick lip, and everything about him gave Wellington his immediate pedigree.

It ill behooves Christendom to need reminding that the Jewish race has adorned and still adorns humanity with some of its noblest specimens; but this interloper was of the type that must have irritated Voltaire into answering the platitudes that the Jews are God's chosen people with that other platitude, "Tastes differ."

Little Jimmie Wellington, hot in pursuit of Ashton, found himself checked in spite of himself; in spite of himself deposited somehow into a seat, and in spite of himself confronted with a curvilinear person, who said:

"Excuse, please! but are you getting off at R-r-r-r-r?"

"I am," Wellington answered, curtly, essaying to rise, only to be delicately restored to his place with a gesture and a phrase:

"Then you need me."

"Oh, I need you, do I? And who are you?"

"Who ain't I? I am Baumann and Blumen. Our cart, please."

Wellington found a pasteboard in his hand and read the legend:

Real Estate Agents Baggage Transfer

Baumann & Blumen
Divorce Outfitters
212 Hillway Avenue, Reno, Nevada

Notary Public Divorces Secured
Justice of the Peace Satisfaction Guaranteed

Wellington looked from the crowded card to the zealous face. "Divorce Outfitters, eh? I don't quite get you."

"Vell, in the first place—"

"The first place, eh? You're from New York?"

"Yes, originally. How did you know it? By my fashionable clothing?"

"Yes," laughed Wellington. "But you say I need you. How?"

"Vell, you've got maybe some, beggeth, some trunks—yes?"

"Yes."

"Vell, in the first place, I am an expressman. I deliver 'em to your address—yes? Verr iss it?"

"I haven't got any yet."

"Also I am addressman. Do you want it a nice hotel?—or a fine house?—or an apartment?—or maybe a boarding-house?—yes? How long do you make a residence?"

"Six months."

"No longer?"

"Not a minute."

"Take a fine house, den, I got some beauties just vacated."

"For a year?—no thanks."

"All the lenses in Reno run for six months only."

"Well, I'd like to look around a little first."

"Good. Don't forget us. You come out here for six months. You want maybe a good quick divorce—yes?"

"The quickest I can get."

"Do you want it confidential? or very nice and noisy?"

"What's that?"

"Ve are press agents and also suppress agents. Some likes 'em one way, some likes 'em another. Vell do you want it?"

"Quick and quiet."

"Painless divorce is our specialty. If you pay me an advance deposit now, I file your claim de minuto de train stops and your own life don't know you're divorced."

"I'll think it over," said Wellington, rising with resolution.

"Don't forget us Baumann and Blumen. Satisfaction guaranteed or your wife refunded. Avoid substitutes!" And then, seeing that he could not extract any cash from Little Jimmie, Mr. Baumann descended upon Mallory, who was just finishing his shave. Laying his hand on Mallory's arm, he began:

"Excuse, please. Can I fit you out with a nice divorce?"

A HISTORY OF OHIO

Something every Buckeye home should own—every boy and girl should have at hand — and it is something that has been neglected. How many people in Coshocton own an up-to-date Ohio History? Few indeed, because such a book is scarce.

The Daily Age however has secured the exclusive introductory sale for Coshocton county of a complete and magnificent volume — Lawyers' History of Ohio.

A $2.50 BOOK FOR 98 Cents

The price of this splendid history (new 1912 edition just off the press) is everywhere $2.50; and it is worth every cent of that. But readers of The Daily Age can have this $2.50 History of Ohio for 98c.

HOW TO GET IT

Present Six Coupons, Printed on Page 2, clipped on consecutive days, and the expense bonus (which merely covers the cost of packing, express from factory, checking clerk and other necessary expense items) and RECEIVE A BEAUTIFUL $2.50 LAWYERS' NEW HISTORY OF OHIO (like illustration). It is bound in best Library Buckram, stamped in gold with the great seal of the State of Ohio, printed in large type on best paper; profusely illustrated, and CONTAINING A NEW 1912 MAP OF OHIO, similar in all respects to the maps sold for $1.98.

Expense Bonus
Six Consecutive Daily Age Coupons and 98c

For the 98c you really GET A $2.50 HISTORY AND A $1.98 MAP—a total value of $4.48—YOURS FOR 98c THROUGH THE DAILY AGE.

Any book by mail 20 cents extra for postage.

Cut Just Half Actual Size

Here is a brief comprehensive glance at Lawyer's History of Ohio, with New Ohio Map, fully illustrated.

Turned out by one of the greatest book publishing firms of the country, it has been manufactured for a subscription book. Nothing has been stinted. It embraces the best that money and skill can put into workmanship. It is the handy library size 6x8 in. 1912 copyright

Contents The Glacial Period, The American Indian, Gas and Petroleum, Pioneer Life in Ohio, Ohio in the War of 1812, Troubles with Michigan, Ohio in the Civil War, Ohio's Presidents, Congressional Districts, Population of Cities and Villages, County Sketches, Civil Government of Ohio, The Mound Builders, Geology of Ohio, The People of Ohio, Early School and Churches, Internal Development of Ohio, Underground Railroads, Farm Life in Ohio, Governors of Ohio, Constitution of Ohio, Miscellaneous Facts

Illustrated throughout: State House, never seen by many children of the state; Flag of Ohio; few people recognize their own state flag when they see it.

Few people have a State History in their homes. It is not taught in the Schools. Children know more about the South Sea Islands than Ohio Citizens are not to blame, for they until now have had no chance to secure a History of Ohio. People are buying and raising this one every where. There is a need of intelligent voters just now on Constitutional amendments; on state and city government; on county and township government. It is all told in the civil section.

Ladies are interested in this history, it will show them how to vote intelligently; it will give them a correct knowledge of the civil government of Ohio. It is a compendium of knowledge relating to Ohio and should be in every home. It is valuable and convenient as a reference book.

The Map of Ohio in every history opens to a size of about 22x26 in. counties shown in colors, every city, village, station and post-office shown; every steam and electric railroad shown; latest and most complete map of Ohio on the market. Shows more than other maps show which sell for $1.98 each, printed on best grade bond paper, and folded neatly in back of history; better than a wall map, as it never gets soiled, is not easily destroyed and you always know where to find it.

Direct from the Author's pen to the reading public. All unnecessary expense eliminated by this cooperative plan. If this valuable History and beautiful Map were brought to your door by an agent, the price to you would be $2.50 plus $1.98, or $4.48 the lowest possible price by that method of distribution. The $1.98 would be divided as follows: The distributing agent would take 50 per cent or $2.24 for his pay, leaving $2.24. Of this remaining $2.24 the jobber would take 50 per cent or $1.12 leaving $1.12. Of this remaining $1.12 the express charges and cost of handling would be 11 cents, leaving 98 cents, the net price to the Author's long years of toil in compiling the History, and for his large expenditure in making the book.

Come right to our office and get the History. We are always glad to see you and we hope that the increased circulation of the paper will in a measure repay us for our trouble.

Many people throughout the state have remarked that they were ashamed of the fact that they have no History of their own state in their home, and that they are pleased with the chance of securing a new one at so small a cost.

NEW GUILFORD

NEW GUILFORD, April 23—Lloyd Westland gave a fine speech, in a debate on "Abraham Lincoln," last Thursday night, at Rabbit Ridge.

Miss Nora Burch gave a fine entertainment and debate at the Rabbit Ridge school house. There was a large crowd present. Miss Burch closed her school Saturday noon, after teaching a successful term. The pupils and parents are anxious for her return the third year.

The farmers are busy plowing. Lloyd Wantland taught a successful term of school at Mt. Nebo which is now closed.

L. Wiggins taught a successful term of school at this place.

There is talk of a new school building here.

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. The score was 15 to 1 with the Newcomerstown bunch hanging for dear life to the long end of the count. Knowles and Cheney for Newcomerstown high and Felver and Burt for West Lafayette were the batteries. "Newcomerstown got 17 hits and allowed three errors and West Lafayette got five hits and doubled back with five errors. The game was interesting despite the uneven score.

THE AGE RECEIVES BY WIRE DAILY MARKET REPORTS FROM PITTSBURGH, CLEVELAND, CHICAGO, TOLEDO AND OTHER CENTERS CORRECTED EVERY DAY.

Pittsburg Live Stock

PITTSBURGH, April 23—East Liberty reports today as follows:
Steers $15.00 to $15.50
Hogs 6.00 to $8.10
Sheep 2.25 to 3.75
Lambs 2.00 to 7.50
Calves 1.50 to $3.00

Cattle.
Market for cattle today was a real hummer. Light run and urgent call with boosting factors. Some based on sale; quality not much different. Buyers excited. Market advanced 10¢ to 15¢; some spots up 25¢ to 40¢. Three weeks' gain 10¢ to 70¢—top earlot $8.50. Single steers up to $8.60 and numerous sales $7.75 to $8.00. Heifers, bulls and fat cows active and up 15¢ to 25¢.

Calves.
Market for calves showed supply—quality good. Buyers turned out in usual force—demand good. Dealing active and prices 50 cents higher. Bulk of choice fat veals brought $8. Most of the business in lots figured around $6.00. Early clearance made and prospects bright. Values today even with last week's range.

Hogs.
7500 hogs made up the total receipts—quality fair. Depreciation in the west influenced local values. The demand was moderate and trade fairly active. General values in weighty grades of 20 cents. Light kinds suffered most with 40¢ to 50¢ decline. Mixed, medium and heavy hogs sold at $8.05 to $8.10. Prime heavy quality went to packers at $8.00 to $8.05. Choice lights brought $7.75; good pigs $7.00. Zeas cleared early under a steady close. Levels today nickel below a week ago—outlook fair.

Sheep and Lambs.
Nice improvement made in sheep and lamb trade. Demand good—market active and higher. 6500 head made up the total receipts—quality fair. Choice handy fat classes up 15¢ to 25¢ and favored. Prime wethers brought $5.75; lambs $7.50; springers 11c. Medium and interior kinds are steady—good clearance.

EASY AND SURE WAY TO CURE COLDS

Don't Neglect a Cold, Ely's Cream Balm Will Stop It in the Sneezing Stage.

A cold generally attacks the weakest part, affecting the eyes and ears in some and producing nasal catarrh and throat trouble in others. A cold is due to invasion of the membrane lining the air passages, and may be promptly cured with a little Ely's Cream Balm, which immediately relieves the inflammation and all the distressing symptoms, such as sneezing, coughing, running at the nose and eyes, hoarseness, sore throat, fever and headache. One reason why this pure, antiseptic balm acts so quickly is because it is applied directly to the tender, sore surfaces.

Even in severe, chronic cases of catarrh, Ely's Cream Balm never fails to quickly and effectively check the poisonous discharge which clogs the head and throat, causing the disgusting hacking, spitting and blowing of the nose. This remedy not only drives out the disease, but heals and strengthens the weakened membranes, thus ending catarrh.

Catarrh is a filthy, disgusting disease. Don't put up with it another day. Get a 50-cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and see how quickly you will be relieved. It is perfectly harmless.

CRAWFORD FOR COMMISSIONER

HENRY CRAWFORD

This is an excellent likeness of W. H. Crawford, the well known Jacksonport farmer who has been prevailed upon by his friends to make the race for the Republican nomination for county commissioner this year. There are three aspirants for the three places, so nominations are expected. Mr. Crawford is one of the leading farmers and citizens of the county, and a business man whose presence on the board would be an economy to the county. Men of all parties are rallying to his standard.

"Oh, Grace! you were right! I have been using Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream and just look at my hair now. It is so easy to shampoo your own hair with it and just see all the new short hair coming in and its life and lustre."

"A friend from New York told me the other day that Mrs. Mason was a famous English Hair Specialist and physicians and women of fashion and nobility showered testamentary honors on her because of her wonderful success in making the hair grow. They say her Old English Hair Tonic accomplishes wonderful results."

"I only wish I had known of these preparations before and I do hope we can continue to get Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream at C. E. Anderson's for 25c a tube, as I simply could not get along without it."

ECZEMA CAME FROM TEETHING

Watery Festers Dried in Scabs. Would Dig and Scratch Her Face. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and Was Cured.

"When my little girl was about eight months old, she was taken with a very irritating breaking out, which came on her face, neck and back. When she first came down with it, it came in little watery-festery festers under her eyes, and on her chin, then after a few days it would dry down in scabs, white scabs. In the daytime she was quite worrisome and would dig and scratch her face nearly all the time."

"I consulted our physician and found she was suffering from eczema, which he said came from her teething. I used the ointment he gave me and without any relief at all. Then I wrote for a book on Cuticura, and purchased some Cuticura Soap and Ointment at the drugstore. I did as I found directions in the Cuticura Booklet, and when she was one year old, she was entirely cured. Now she is three years and four months, and she has never been troubled with eczema since she was cured by the Cuticura Soap and Ointment." (Signed) Mrs. Freeman Craver, 211 Lewis St., Syracuse, N. Y., May 6, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, but to those who have tried the usual remedies and found them wanting, and who have lost faith in everything, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. book on the skin, will be sent post-free, on application to Fetter Drug & Chem. DUTTER AFTER SWEET REVENGE

Last Game of Whist Tournament to Be Played Thursday

The last of the first series in the whist tournament at the Country club will be played Thursday night and the players of the victorious Holderman side and of the Dutter opponents are said to be practicing in secret every night in preparation for the event. So far the Holderman crowd have made a clean sweep and are going to try to cap the fourth evening as well. The Dutters will make a heroic stand against the final assault and declare they will get the scalp. The player who in the first series of four evenings of play has the highest score will get his name engraved on the loving cup; and the man whose name is on it three times keeps the valuable trophy. So far

"GETS-IT" Will Get Any Corn, Sure!

Almost Like Magic. Guaranteed.

You'll Quit Everything Else for "GETS-IT."

Any corn just loves to be cut and gouged, but it's mighty rough on you. Plasters and salves usually take away some of the toe with them, and leave the corn to flourish.

The new corn cure "GETS-IT" is perfectly harmless to the healthy flesh, but it does go for a corn, bunion, callous or wart right off the reel. The corn shrivels away from the healthy flesh and drops off.

You can apply "GETS-IT" in two seconds and it begins its work right off. Pretty soon you'll forget you ever had corns or bunions.

"GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists, at 25 cents a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

MINSTREL SEATS ARE GOING FAST

Elks Show Promises To Be The Real Hit of Season

A full rehearsal of the Elks' Minstrels was held Monday night in the Sixth Street theatre, and the entire performance passed off in fine shape, showing conclusively that those who are to take part in the show have been putting in some good hard work at rehearsals. Tonight the final practice will be held at the theatre, and the orchestra will be present to play the accompaniments to the different songs.

When the curtain goes up Wednesday night on the first part of the show, the audience will see one of the most beautiful first part settings that ever been on the local stage. It is called "The Garden of Roses" and was especially painted at the Arnim studio in Columbus.

The seats for the show went on sale Monday morning, and went with a rush, too. Although the sale has been very good, there are still a few good ones left both upstairs and down, and those who have not already secured their seats had better do so at once if they expect to see the organized 12-club Central league will open its eleventh season Wednesday with Terre Haute at South Bend. Grand Rapids at Springfield, Zanesville at Youngstown, Port Wayne at Dayton, Canton at Erie, and Akron at Wheeling. According to reports to Dr. F. K. Carson of this city, president of the league, great preparations are being made for the opening games and in some of the cities business men have declared a half holiday.

CENTRAL LEAGUE OPENS TOMORROW

South Bend, Ind., April 23—The re-

So far none of the clubs has announced its lineup for the first game. Practice was given a setback by the cold weather last week and it is probable not more than one-third of the players will be in form when the games are called.

President Carson will hold a conference with his staff of umpires here tomorrow and will assign them for the first games.

FATHER OF LOCAL MEN IS CALLED

Word was received Monday evening from M. J. Dwyer and Wm. Dwyer of Ninth street of the death of their aged father, in Salem, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Dwyer and Wm. Dwyer will leave this afternoon to attend the funeral. Mr. Dwyer was 78 years of age.

Almost A Miracle.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Chardon, Texas, was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for Coughs and Colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price, 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at C. W. Ferguson of Roscoe, and C. E. Anderson.

Miss Bessie Carter, who has been teaching school in Bladensburg during the past year, has returned to her home in West Carlisle.
